Sewer finances at issue

By LISALUTZ
of the Press-Record

Differences of opinion were expressed Thursday by Madison County Special Sewer Committee Chairman Louis Whitsett and Assistant State's Attorney Marshall "Zeke" Smith, as to the financial future of the sewer district.

Despite the district's plans to raise the current $25 tap-on fee to $400 Jan. 1, 1982, the sewer district still is faced with dire financial problems.

Committee members are hopeful that the increase will encourage residents who are required to hook up to the sewers to do so before the deadline and will generate more money for the district.

Although the district expects to receive as much as $100,000 from the Environmental Protection Agency, Smith contends that this will not remedy the financial situation. "It will not solve all the problems," Smith said. The EPA has withheld $800,000, or five percent of the sewer construction grant (which is standard procedure) since the project was initiated.

The project, contractor for the project, has claims on at least $700,000 of that money, according to Smith. The money will not be released to Wilson until the sewer committee is satisfied with the completion of the project.

Apparently, some property marking stakes that were removed during sewer construction have not been replaced, and the board has indicated that S.M. Wilson may be responsible for the replacement of the stakes. Forcing the contractor to replace the stakes could result in extensive, costly court confrontations, Smith maintains.

Whitsett's belief that the EPA funds will relieve the district of a large

Cyclist dies in crash

Douglas G. Pritchard, 25, of 1036 Washington Ave., Madison, was fatally injured on Interstate 70 a half-mile east of Interstate 55, east of Troy, at 8:30 p.m. Sunday when his motorcycle collided head-on with a tractor trailer. Illinois state troopers were told that Mr. Pritchard apparently drove his motorcycle north on Interstate 55 and exited at Interstate 70 and 270, making a wrong left turn and ending up west-bound in the eastbound lanes of Interstate 70.

An eastbound tractor trailer driven by Jack Herber, 58, Kansas City, Mo., was unable to stop before striking the motorcycle head-on, evidence indicates. Mr. Pritchard was pronounced dead on the scene at 8:45 p.m. Sunday by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Kueker and his body was taken to a Troy funeral home and later brought to Granite City.

Mr. Pritchard was a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area, except during his service in the U.S. Navy.

He was enrolled as an electrician student at Rankin Technical Institute. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Connie

Shrine circus scheduled in GC 3 nights

The annual Alnad Shrine circus parade, customarily one of the biggest public events of the year, will be held in Granite City Tuesday, June 9, to herald the Shrine circus which will perform on the following Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

The event is being planned as the "biggest parade ever" and will feature a parade of 60 marching units including bands, floats, Shrine motorized units and Shrine groups.

Alnad Southern Illinois Shriners also will stage parades in Belleville and in DuQuoin, Ill., in connection with circus presentations that also will be held in those cities.

The Belleville parade will precede the Granite City event on Friday, June 5, followed by circus performances on June 6, 7 and 8. The DuQuoin parade will be held Saturday morning, June 13, followed by circus performances Saturday morning and Sunday.

Trophies will be awarded for the best floats in the parades and since there are two categories, the "Circus" theme and "Salute to America," competition is expected to be high.

The admission price for the circus will be $3 for adults and $1.50 for children under 12. There are no reserved seats.

Orville Hommert is the parade marshal and has called for the parade lineup to start at 6 p.m. for a 7:30 starting time at 25th Street and Madison Avenue.

Valuations revised to avoid injustice and foster sound tax base — Barton

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

(First of a series)
Many tax injustices have been remedied or avoided through issuance of certificates of error in Madison County. Supervisor of Assessments James W. Barton said Thursday evening in defending himself against State's Attorney Donald Weber's assertion that he should be fired.

Avoiding any personal criticism of the county prosecutor, Barton, a Democrat reapportioned to a four-year term in January 1981, said Republican Weber "naturally wants to replace any and all Democratic officeholders he can."

Barton recalled that the state's attorney received enthusiastic campaign help in the November 1980 election from members of the Eastern Madison County Organizing Committee, an increasingly active group of rural property owners.

"Easterners" enjoyed extremely low assessments before the county began its aggressive equalization efforts, and the organizing group may have selfish motivation in opposing continued service by the assessment supervisor, Barton added.

In defending the use of certificates, Barton said they were invaluable when the county greatly expanded corporate personal property valuations; this was prior to the time when their total was used as the permanent amount that would be replaced by corporate income taxes.

This expansion prior to the tax replacement will forever benefit the county's governmental agencies and citizens; the rapid, massive work that it required inevitably caused many errors, later corrected by certificates, Barton told the Press-Record.

He cited instances, in which various certificates of error on real estate, in his opinion, averted financial calamities. This short-term compassion, he said, proved to be of long-range benefit in bolstering the county's base of tax-producing, economically healthy properties.

Barton said use of certificates of error at the county level has been widespread in Illinois for many years and still is, because there are so many inequities in township-determined assessments.

He reported that Madison County has resorted to certificates on "less than one percent of the parcels of real estate, compared to 20 percent in counties like Randolph."

He added, "We felt, and still feel, that certificates constituted virtually the only avenue to help people who were overassessed."

"Every certificate issued by me or the Board of Review was to correct an injustice on a tax bill. If the property happened to belong to a politician or a preacher or a friend of mine, it nevertheless was to correct unfairness in their taxes."

"I have a lot of friends. Does that mean they can't receive a fair reassessment just because they happen to be a friend of mine?"

Interest rates force mortgage banker to 'toss in the towel'

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

"You keep telling yourself, 'Today is bad, but tomorrow's going to be better.' When tomorrow comes, it's still bad."

That is how Ed Reinagel of M.E. Hoffman Co., mortgage banker, 4741A Maryville Road, described the mortgage business as he closed his office permanently Friday.

"Today is the last day for paychecks. From now on, we qualify for unemployment. I'll probably be on the way in the unemployment line who has a membership in the Country Club," Reinagel commented, keeping a sense of humor amid some very dark hours for the real estate business in general.

"You just can't close a GI loan at 15 1/2 percent when you are borrowing the money at 20 1/2 percent. You can't do any good. There's no survival at that rate," Reinagel commented.

He said his company has been hanging on through the latest year of high interest rates, always believing that the rates would decrease in the future. "That's a futures market and what happened to futures," he said, comparing his business to the stock market.

Reinagel said his problems are shared by many in the financial business. "Most lending institutions have problems. You are going to see more of this. More closings and more mergers," he predicted.

He said many real estate firms also are finding it difficult to exist, primarily due to the high interest rates.

Reinagel has been in the mortgage business for 28 years, the first 20 with Mercantile Mortgage. In December 1973, he started his own firm, basically a one-man basement-type operation.

He soon became affiliated with the Springfield, Ill., based M.E. Hoffman firm and in October, 1974, he entered into what he believed would be "a permanent arrangement" with Hoffman. Unfortunately, hopes that the business would be permanent rested with interest rates remaining fairly stable, which they didn't.

Since Reinagel started his affiliation with M.E. Hoffman, the office has grown into the largest mortgage banking firm in Madison County. "I checked and we closed more mortgages, in dollar terms, than the other five mortgage banking firms in the county put together," Reinagel said proudly.

In addition to himself, the local Hoffman office employed Reinagel's son and two secretaries—up until last Friday.

Reinagel said he intends to honor all commitments he has made to home buyers and will be working himself until the end of June to sell $600,000 worth of loans to other mortgage bankers.

"The loans we are committed to close are being closed on the same basis we negotiated them, the same terms and at the same interest rate. It's the same

Police officer hurt in fight at Madison

A Madison police officer was injured during a large-scale disturbance in that community at 2:10 a.m. Saturday.

Three men were taken into custody and two were charged after fighting with Venice police officers.

The third man, Richard Lee Niehaus Sr., 46, of 1115 McCambridge Ave., Madison, was arrested by Madison officers and charged with criminal damage to property, resisting arrest and battery. Additional charges are pending, it was learned today.

Five police departments responded to a call for assistance from the Madison officer who was in the middle of an estimated crowd of 50 yelling and fighting people outside the home of Richard Niehaus Sr., 1115 McCambridge Ave., Madison.

Police units from Venice, Illinois State Police, the Madison County

Sheriff's Department and Madison, plus several squad cars from Granite City, converged on the area in answer to the officer's call for help.

An Illinois Terminal Railroad detective is believed to have been the first to respond.

Venice police officers arrived at the scene to find Madison Patrolman Richard Asperger down on the ground, bleeding from the mouth, with a group of people standing around him, kicking and hitting the officer.

Officers from the Venice Police Department alleged seeing two men attack and strike Officer Asperger while he was down and grabbed one man, Jeff L. Niehaus, 17, of 1115 McCambridge Ave., and placed him in a squad car, having to use physical force.

H. D. Karandjeff is honored as bond chairman

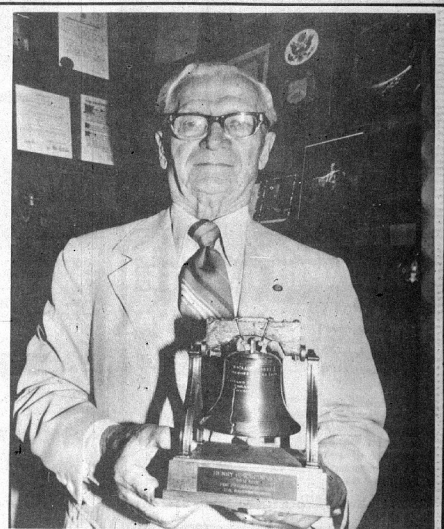

Henry D. Karandjeff, president and chairman of the board of the American Heritage Bank, has been awarded a miniature replica of the Liberty Bell in recognition of his 40 consecutive years as the Madison County chairman of the U.S. Savings Bond program.

His 40 years as chairman is the longest consecutive county chairmanship in the United States. Karandjeff began his present position on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, 1941, as chairman of the then new War Bond program.

At the annual Madison County Savings Bond kickoff last week, a total of $4,348,390 for the 1981 savings bond sales was announced by Karandjeff, who was beginning his 41st such drive.

His unending involvement in the community has helped to make the annual savings bond drive a success and this year is no different. As of the end of April, the sales in the county total $1,061,194 and there is little reason to doubt that the 1981 drive will reach and probably exceed its goal.

New squad car for Pontoon

It's good news and bad news for the Pontoon Beach police, the village board was told last week.

Officers now are driving in a brand-new Dodge Diplomat squad car, equipped with first aid equipment and fire extinguisher, and have full lawful authority assist injured persons or emergencies. That is the good news. The bad news is that the village soon will lose two of its police dispatchers when Manpower cuts take effect June 12, and the board has not decided how to remedy the shortage.

Village Clerk Mary Warren noted that the new 1981 police car has been received and the board approved payment of $143 for liability and collision insurance for the car.

Trustee Robert Abel, a member of the police committee, said that first aid kits, blankets and fire extinguishers for the police cars, ordered last week, have arrived.

Mrs. Warren read a legal opinion from village attorney Robert Hennessey which said that police officers are free of liability in rendering emergency care to the injured and in danger, except for incidents in which the officer displays willful or wanton misconduct.

Mrs. Warren also noted she contacted all service stations in the village for bids on gasoline and automobile repairs for the village police cars and vehicles.

She read a bid from Pontoon Mobil offering to sell gasoline to the village ranging from $1.299 a gallon for regular gas to $1.459 for super premium. It also bid $6.50 per car wash and various prices for other work.

Mrs. Warren said a proposal from Pontoon Fina last week asked the village to pay pump prices for gasoline, but offering free washes for three police cars once a week, waxing of each monthly and reduced prices for oil, oil filters and grease jobs.

Agreement on repairing county-owned building

The state fire marshal staff has agreed to partly waive correction of three of 13 fire code violations noted at the former Bank of Edwardsville building, now occupied by Madison County governmental offices.

The waiver does not affect the lives or safety of employees, Mary Kane, county director of administration, said last week.

It relates to installation of full sprinkler system in the basement, instead permitting a partial system; installation of pressurized water pipe through all five floors, instead allowing elimination of an additional pump for the standpipe that will be installed; and construction of a second fire escape, with the design modified to enable employees to climb onto the roof of an adjacent building.

A state inspection April 14 suggested building revisions, estimated at $250,000 to $400,000, but it is hoped to hold the cost to a figure, closer to $100,000.

The county plans to comply with the 13 recommendations, with three of them altered as outlined. The work will include enclosing a stairway and elevator shaft, and installing special fire doors on each floor.

Bill Winter on Philmont staff

Bill Winter, 19, son of William and Leona Winter, 3310 Wilshire Drive, will leave Wednesday, June 10 for Philmont Scout Ranch and Explorer Base, near Cimarron, New Mexico.

Winter, an Eagle Scout, has been selected to serve on the Philmont staff.

Philmont is regarded in Boy Scout circles as the epitome of Boy Scout camps. Winter will be working as an assistant scoutmaster at the Rocky Mountain Scout Camp.

The Eagle Scout graduated from Granite City High School North in 1979 and is a junior at Illinois College, Jacksonville, where he is majoring in business administration.

Locally he was a member of Boy Scout Troop and Explorer Post 102 and earned the Arrow of Light as a Cub Scout at Parkview school.

He is also a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow, the BSA national honor camping society.

Winter served for four summers on the local Camp Sunnen staff and last summer worked at Camp Bunn, of the Abraham Lincoln Council, Springfield.

Philmont is owned and operated by the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

BILL WINTER

The Scout Ranch is located in northeastern New Mexico, in the Sangre de Cristo (Blood of Christ) range of the Rocky Mountains. The Scout camp is 137,493 acres or 214 square miles of wilderness-like mountain terrain.

Over 15,000 older Scouts and Explorers have wide adventures in backpacking and camping.

Over 4,000 adult Scout leaders receive training at Philmont each summer, and it is used as a conference center year around.

Venice adopts new school use policy

By VALERIE EVENEDEN of the Press-Record
The Venice Board of Education approved new policy procedures concerning use of school facilities or equipment at its meeting last week.

The new policy states—
"Only school district residents will be given consideration and/or permission to use school facilities or equipment free of charge and any excess cost which may accrue to the district as a result of use of the facilities will be charged to the users and payable in advance."

Another change in the current policy states: "All requests for the use of school facilities or equipment must be made in writing, using appropriate school district forms, and must be approved in advance by the Board of Education."

"Requests must be submitted to the Superintendent of Schools 30 days prior to desired board action to ensure adequate time for coordination with school usage."

In other action: The board accepted the resignation of Elizabeth Bravley, secretary at the Venice High School for the past 15 years.

—Accepted a bid of $2,980 from Butler Floor Co., Granite City, to replace the vinyl tile floor in the main area of the school cafeteria. More than 40 percent of the present floor tile was heavily damaged when a hot water pipe burst during a weekend about two months ago.

A check for $2,850 has been received from the insurance company to compensate the district, Supt. of Schools Robert Vickers said.

—Agreed to recover the kitchen floor at a cost of $490 at the same time that work is being done in the cafeteria.

—Approved submitting the 1981-82 Title I application, prepared by Supt. Vickers, to the state.

The administrator, said Title I funds expected in the next fiscal year will be about 80 percent of the amount received this year and "will not be quite enough" to cover the expenses of the two staff members, whose salaries are reimbursed through program funds.

The Venice School District received a total of $49,950 in Title I money in 1980-81.

—Agreed to allow the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission to use the Venice school kitchen facilities for a summer nutritional program from June 8 until the end of July, subject to possible interruptions while the floor is repaired.

It was noted the EOC had requested use of the kitchen from June 8 until Aug. 21.

Job-hunt workshops during June at SIUE

Persons who are unemployed by day can get help finding a new job by night in a series of job hunting workshops during June at SIUE.

Mary Saterlee, program adviser at University Placement Services, will lead the weekly sessions beginning at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 9, in Room 1309 of Peck Building. The workshops are free and open to the public, but registration is required before June 5.

The one thing most people have trouble with is the job interview, Mrs. Saterlee said.

"Here, they can learn the skills of interviewing — keeping good eye contact or knowing something about the company. They should be able to follow the cue of the interviewer and be prepared, not surprised," she said.

To prepare for the final interview session June 30, Mrs. Saterlee will concentrate on skill analysis, June 9; developing a resume, June 16; and letter writing, June 23.

When anyone goes back to work or changes jobs, the employer always begins by asking for a resume, Mrs. Saterlee said. The job hunting workshop will teach applicants to make their own and write a business letter to go with it, she said.

Most people can write letters, but they often come out too jumbled for a business letter, she said.

County Urban league seminar

The Madison County Urban League will be presenting a family life seminar on Thursday, June 4, at the Bethel AME Church, located at 1035 Market St. in Madison, at 7 p.m. The family life seminar will be directed at sexually transmitted diseases and teenage pregnancies. Films will be shown, as well as discussion of these topics by group leaders with a question and answer session.

Registration is at 6:30 p.m. and refreshments will be served. Workshop leaders are Mrs. Bernice Savage, R.N., Mrs. Hilda James, R.N., Mrs. Barbara Madison, social worker, and Mrs. Metro Pierson, health technician.

According to the Division of Family Health of the Department of Illinois Public Health, there has been a total of 610 teen pregnancies in the Tri-Cities Area, and 14 of these pregnancies ended in fetal deaths. These statistics are relative to the age groups of 10 to 19 years old. In 1980 there were 10 million cases of venereal diseases (V.D.) reported and the U.S. Government has indicated that V.D. is contacted every 3 seconds. The family life seminar will try to prevent crises, rather than simply react to them.

He allegedly struck the auto of Janet Melton, Collinsville, bounced off and hit a vehicle owned by John Allen, 3124 Jill Ave., then struck the auto of James R. Thurman, 1955 Joy Ave. All three vehicles were parked at the curb.

The Curless auto then skidded into the front yard at 3128 Jill, where it struck two trees before coming to a halt, according to official reports. Curless, who declined medical attention, was charged with reckless driving and driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Police searched the area but failed to locate the youth. The bicycle initially was described as white, but later was believed to be gold colored.

Valuations revised

interpretations as too rigid, and in urgent need of revision, Barton said limiting of certificates of error to correcting computational mistakes "eliminates the only vehicle we had to correct injustices. Now, once a taxpayer receives his bill, there is nothing he can do about it."

The call for Barton to be ousted cites grand jury inquiries and a study of Madison County of real estate assessments. The study was made by the Illinois Law Enforcement Department's Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI).

Barton told the DCI that reductions of proposed assessments "are made many times according to the circumstances surrounding the individual, so as not to excessively tax that individual or that property."

"Many times an individual has a grievance with the Board of Review in reference to his property tax after the tax bills are already out."

"The only way he can receive any justice and lowering of his assessment is through the certificate of error."

In years past, documentation sometimes was not required to accompany a certificate, the study determined. But, at present, "documentation is attached to each certificate and the certificates are being acted upon by a judge of the court in Madison County."

Even though all or most of the certificates of error contain Barton's signature, in many cases he does not initiate a certificate, he told the DCI. Certificates are initiated by the township assessor, by members of the Board of Review, and by Barton, he said.

The DCI noted, "Barton stated that the certificates of error he has issued have been, in his own mind, backed up by either his personal knowledge of the property, or by some type of documentation presented to him by either the taxpayer or a board member, or information provided by the property tax record cards."

Among the property records reviewed by the DCI were those of the Nameoki Village Shopping Center on Nameoki Road in Granite City.

For the 1974 tax year, the assessed valuation was $485,170. For 1975, $520,330 was proposed, changed to $401,000.

For the 1976 tax year, the assessor's figure of $582,950 was reduced to $235,000. And for 1977, the valuation was set at $374,200 and cut to $235,000.

Granite City Assessor Von Dee Cruse told the DCI that he could "in this particular situation understand the reduction by the Board of Review."

"In 1974, Jim Henderson, owner, lost his largest renter, W. T. Grant's, and soon lost other renters from his shopping center."

"Cruse stated that, this being a financial burden on Henderson, the Board of Review reduced the taxes on the property until the property was again rented. Cruse stated he believes the property went back to the full assessment as of the 1978 tax year, due to the fact that new renters had been obtained by Henderson."

Property taxes paid by the Nameoki Village Shopping Center totaled $32,225 for the 1974 tax year, $26,899 for 1975, $15,249 for 1976 and $16,330 for 1977.

Next questioned by the DCI was Henderson, who said that "on Oct. 1, 1974, the Grant's store, biggest renter in the shopping center, went bankrupt (nationally) and closed. Soon afterward, he lost other renters due to the loss of business from Grant's."

"He stated that with the loss of revenue, he contacted his attorney concerning his taxes. Prior to Grant's leaving, he had been paying about $30,000 in taxes. Because of the loss of revenue, he could no longer afford to pay this high amount."

"His attorney contacted the Board of Review and requested a reduction in the taxes until the property could be rented. Certificates of error were issued for the tax years 1975-76-77, reducing the taxes due by nearly half."

"Henderson was asked if he was going to appeal his 1978 taxes which were due currently (Aug. 2, 1978, was the interview date). He stated that from January to April 1978, he had re-leased his space in the shopping center and he felt he presently had sufficient revenue to pay the taxes that were due."

Barton, interviewed Oct. 31, 1979, cited the departure of W. T. Grant's and commented that "without reducing the property assessment, the individuals who owned Nameoki Village would have not been able to pay their taxes, and possibly would have lost their buildings."

"At this time, the property is being rented again and the taxes will be back on the books at an amount which is equitable for the amount."

Barton served as the assessor of Granite City Township, an elective office, from 1966 to December 1972, and has been Madison County supervisor of assessments since Jan. 1, 1973.

He told the DCI that his county duties "are to ensure that the township assessors receive their tax books during January of each year, that those books are returned to the county office during May, and that all corrections are made to those books prior to forwarding the assessment information to the Springfield tax assessment office."

"In addition," he said, "he is "responsible to ensure that all the townships within Madison County are equally assessed."

"According to Barton, he has the responsibility to ensure that the job is done correctly; however, he has no power over the township assessors. It causes them to do their job of assessing in the proper manner."

"Many of the townships are small and some township assessors do nothing to their books, leaving Barton's office to complete the books."

"The assessors are elected individuals in each township. Many of them know little about tax assessing, and many have no training or education in the field of property assessments."

"There are assessors who are paid a good yearly salary and are reluctant to make the necessary and proper changes to the properties within their township."

State investigators concluded that corrective procedures followed in Madison County at one time varied from Chapter 120, Section 536, of the Illinois Revised Statutes.

Section 526 as quoted by the DCI relates that "in any county containing less than 1,000,000 inhabitants, if—any time before judgment or order of sale is rendered in any proceeding to collect or to enforce the collection of taxes, based upon any assessment of any property belonging to any person or corporation—the assessor, supervisor of assessments, or board of assessors, as the case may be, shall discover an error or mistake (other than errors of judgment as to the valuation of any real or personal property)..."

"In such assessment, he or she shall issue to the person or corporation erroneously assessed a certificate of correction, showing their concurrence therein, and not otherwise, may be used in evidence in any court of competent jurisdiction."

"And when so introduced in evidence such certificate shall become a part of the court record and shall not be removed from the files except on an order of the court."

Section 527 states that "the supervisor of assessments or the board of assessors of any county having fewer than 1,000,000 inhabitants, or the township assessor of any township in any such county, may in any year revise an assessment and correct such error, and the correction shall appear to him or her to be just."

"A notice of any such revision shall be given to the taxpayer whose property assessment has been changed."

GC condemnations proceeding

An update on the status of condemnation cases approved by the Granite City Council was given to the council by assistant city attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. at the last council meeting, along with a "pat on the back" to the city engineer's office for its help in preparing the cases.

In the letter, Slate indicates that filing on certain suits has been filed in court against the owners of 2162 Grand Ave., and suits have been prepared against the owners of 801-03 Niedringhaus Ave., 1740 Maple St., 3004 E. 23rd St. and 1618 Spruce St., and were ready to file.

"The city engineer's office has done a fine job of collecting the necessary information in order to prepare the cases for filing and trial. I believe the judge will give us some priority so that the cases may be tried as soon as the necessary parties have been notified, as required by law."

"As you know, we have withheld filing on certain cases where the owners have razed the structures or undertaken corrective construction," Slate concluded.

In other business at its last meeting the council:

Robber fires shot at station employee

An armed man escaped with between $100 and $150 from the Conoco Service Station, 1501 Madison Ave., after holding the station attendant at gunpoint while robbing the cash register at 11:25 p.m. Friday. A shot was fired at the attendant after the robbery, but he was not injured.

After getting the money, the robber ran out the front door, across the station lot and south into an alley between Iowa Street and Madison Avenue, with the attendant in pursuit.

Seeing he was being chased, the robber turned while running and fired the weapon at the attendant, but missed.

The robber was described as a black man of muscular build, in his late 20's, wearing his hair in braids. He was about 6 feet 3 inches tall and weighed about 175 pounds.

The man was dressed in a light blue tee shirt and jeans and wore a light blue ski mask. The weapon was described as a snubnose revolver.

The station employee told officers he was washing his car in front of the building when the man approached him from the rear, grabbed him by the left arm and stuck an object, believed to be the gun, in the small of his back, saying something to the effect of, "Let's go to the register and get the money."

The robber walked the employee into the station and the attendant opened the cash register, then backed away into a corner of the room.

Upon taking all of the currency, the man asked if there was any more money in the station and the attendant said he did not know.

The robber removed the cash drawer from the register and dropped it scattering coins about the floor. He then shuffled papers in the drawer, apparently looking for more money, before running from the building.

After being shot at by the robber, the attendant returned to the station and notified police.

Meanwhile, a resident in the 1400 block of Madison Avenue had called police a few moments earlier when she heard a gunshot and saw a man run across Madison Avenue and go between two houses.

Madison school board sets hearings

Two special meetings of the Madison School District Board of Education for public hearings on the desegregation of Madison schools will be held Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 p.m.

On Tuesday the hearing will be at the Blair School. The Wednesday hearing will be at Harris School.

A volunteer advisory committee has submitted desegregation plans to the Board of Education, with recommendations that would attain the desired goals. Although the committee is not endorsing any specific plan, it did not recommend the closing of the Blair School. The committee suggested that Harris and Blair Schools could provide equal quality of education if both are properly maintained.

After studying various aspects of desegregation for many months, the committee feels a successful integration program necessitates busing students of the primary level, kindergarten through grade 3 from predominantly white areas into the black community.

The meetings will give affected residents the opportunity to voice their comments and suggestions. The committee is welcoming comments from the public, but only interjections from those who will be affected by the desegregation will be considered. Public input is needed in order to design an effective plan, the committee has indicated.

Those wanting to comment at the meeting must register with the board's secretary between 6:45 and 7 p.m. on the night of the meeting at the meeting sites.

While considering various aspects of the plan, including legal requirements, reassignment, transferring students and racial implications of the proposal, the committee agrees that more planning is needed in order to arrive at a workable solution for the community.

10 seek board post

Ten Granite City residents have applied for appointment to a vacant seat on the Granite City Board of Education.

The vacancy, created when Board President Stephen Salitch resigned to serve as an alderman, is to be filled by the board of education during a special meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 9.

The person selected to fill the vacancy will serve the remainder of Salitch's unexpired term, extending to November, 1983.

Applicants are Edward Dewey Melton, James W. Foley, John F. Tritsch, Floyd Peterson, Norma Mendoza, G. W. Sand, Richard Fry, Selma Nelson, Laymond McGee and Valerie Stevens.

There is some question whether Melton, 42, a former board member who was defeated in a bid for reelection last year, is eligible for the appointment.

Legal rulings demand that since Salitch was a resident of the city, his vacancy must be filled by an urban member, rather than an urban resident.

Melton resides at 2509 Westmoreland Drive, which is outside of the city limits, but activities are underway to have four lots, including his, annexed to the city before the school board selects a replacement for Salitch.

The city council voted to annex the properties last week, but was informed that the annexations would have to be formalized in ordinances tomorrow night.

However, a legal opinion published by the school district establishing the "ground rules" for applying states that applicants must reside in the corporate limits of the city of Granite City and applications must have been submitted by Thursday, May 28.

On that date, when Melton was an "applicant," he was not a city resident, some are contending.

Other qualifications listed in the legal notice included citizenship, a minimum age of 18 and being a resident of the state and the school district for one year prior to applying.

Sentenced in shooting

Jeff Nornberg, 37, St. Louis, has been placed by Associate Judge Edward Ferguson on 90 days of conditional discharge, with no reporting required.

In addition, $200 was assessed. Aggravated battery occurred Feb. 20 in Madison, court records indicate.

Nornberg was alleged to have shot Curtis Holmes, 25, of 1534 Fifth St., Madison, at the Red Crown Liquor Store.

Holmes, wounded in the back during a disagreement in the store, was charged with battery for allegedly punching Nornberg and breaking his nose and eyeglasses moments before the shooting.

Police contended that Holmes, fired from the store staff earlier that day, returned to discuss the firing with the owner, Nornberg, A fight ensued.

Holmes was shot with a .38-caliber pistol and underwent surgery.

Madisonian given prison sentence

The investigation of the burglary was conducted by the Illinois Bureau of Investigation.

News notes

Illinois senators voted 41-10 last week to require unmarried women under 18 to obtain approval from both parents before having an abortion.

A bill to bar foreigners from buying Illinois farmland fell two votes short of the 30 needed for approval Friday in the State Senate.

Senate approvers included a pending bill on the phenylketonuria (PKU) testing program for newborns, broadening seniors' eligibility for medical and life insurance, encouraging urban homeowning in "enterprise zones" giving $13 million in state income tax breaks to parents of non-public school pupils, and reducing the number of challenges to prospective jurors in criminal cases to speed trials.

Other bills passed by the Illinois Senate last week provide for raising the speed limit on limited-access highways from 55 to 65, suspending for six months the driving privileges of those refusing to submit to breath tests, allowing collective bargaining for public school employees, providing a toll-free telephone for school personnel reporting drug abuse at schools, granting sales and property tax breaks for solar energy and alternative energy equipment, and creating the criminal verdict of "guilty but mentally ill."

Congress voted overwhelmingly Thursday to delay for up to three years federal clean air laws affecting steelmaking plants.

St. Louis County Executive Gene McNary last week cut off county subsidies to the Bi-State bus system for the rest of the agency's fiscal year ending June 30. He said 1980-81 county bus payments will be more than twice as large as subsidies from the City of St. Louis.

The East-West Gateway Coordinating Council decided last week to conduct a major study of mass transit in this metropolitan area.

ARREST GC COUPLE

Donald J. Boyer, 22, of 2226 Lee Ave., was charged with possessing cannabis and he and his wife, Edith F. Boyer, 26, were charged with disorderly conduct following a disturbance in Wayside Tavern, 2160 Washington Ave., at 9:55 p.m. Thursday. They allegedly yelled obscenities at each other and refused to leave. Their two children, ages 4 and 6, were taken into the protection of police at the tavern. A plastic bag containing marijuana allegedly was found in Mr. Boyer's pocket when he was booked.

GC man found beaten to death in St. Louis

Carl Caldwell, 46, of 665 Ashland Ave., Granite City, was found dead about noon Sunday in St. Louis, according to St. Louis police.

He had been beaten and shot in the head, officers said.

The body was found in a vacant building in the 2900 block of Martin Luther King Drive.

The victim, identified by St. Louis police, was pronounced dead at the scene.

4-year term in GC robbery

Dale L. Culver, 21, of 3702 Kirkpatrick Homes, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Philip J. Rankin this month to serve four years in prison for a March 23 robbery in Granite City.

The charge was amended from an original allegation of armed robbery.

The early morning crime occurred at the Mr. Donut store and restaurant on Nameoki Road. The weapon used proved to be a pellet gun resembling a pistol. The holdup netted $190. It was solved through an investigation by the Granite City police department, and Culver was taken into custody March 24.

BURGLAR TAKES GUNS

A 16 gauge pump shotgun and a .22-caliber rifle were taken by a burglar from the home of Sidney Tindall, 2412 Logan Ave., he reported last week.

5 percent utility tax for Madison

Madison City Council members have decided to impose a five percent tax on utility companies in Madison in an effort to raise funds so the city can cope with inflation.

While reviewing a statement of revenues and expenditures for the 1981 fiscal year, city council members determined that imposing a five percent tax would generate additional city revenues. When the tax plan first was introduced, Mayor Mike Sasys said in a letter to the council that he believes this tax will be fair to citizens and business.

Although the tax will be directed at utility companies, it is possible that the expense will be passed on to the customers. The effective date for the tax is July 1. Members of the finance committee devised the utility tax plan, believing it is the most workable solution to the financial situation in Madison.

Probation for two women in robbery

Karin L. Souers, 18, of 2716 Nameoki Road has been placed on 2 1/2 years of probation and ordered to pay $91 restitution for a Feb. 23 robbery in Granite City. The sentence was set by Circuit Judge Philip J. Rankin.

In the same case, Rankin placed Vicki Presswood, 21, of 2008 Edwards St. on three years of probation and ordered $91 restitution.

The Spartan gasoline station at 2901 Edwardsville Road was robbed of about $175 by two persons who wore red ski masks and left the area in a 1973 auto. One had aimed a hand that was covered by a bag, and ordered the cashier to hand over "all your money."

A police investigation was aided by tire marks in mud, and officers were able to locate a car and two ski masks.

It was alleged that Karin Souers drove the auto, and that the crime also involved Vicki Presswood and a 16-year-old Granite City girl.

Kahoks bats wake up, bury North

By RICK WELLS
for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY —

Collinsville coach Russ Keene has said all season long that sooner or later the Kahoks were going to break loose from the hex that seemed to have a iron grip on their aluminum bats.

Kent Parker's three-run homer in the third inning of Saturday's Granite City South Class AA Sectional semifinal game against Granite City North helped keep Keene true to his words. Parker's 330-foot blast tied the game and opened the floodgates as the Kahoks went on to defeat the Steelers, 8-4.

Collinsville now advances to the sectional championship game which was scheduled for today against Centralia, which defeated Belleville East in the second game Saturday, 6-3. The Orphans are the only team now standing between Collinsville, the defending state champ, and a second trip to the state finals to be held Thursday and Friday at Lanphier Park in Springfield.

"We didn't have the pitching today and we didn't have the defense," said North Coach Bob Stegemeier. "The Collinsville hitters were stronger than the Granite North pitchers, and our pitchers didn't get a lot of help."

Two Steeler errors both resulted in runs to further help the Kahoks' cause. Add to that Collinsville's eight hits — including two doubles, a triple and Parker's home run — and that spells trouble for Granite City.

"It's about time," Keene said. "We've needed a big hit like Parker's for a long time. It's a good solid hit. It changes things. It gets everybody up."

It's not like the Kahoks needed help getting up. They only faced eliminating North the very first inning. North hoped on senior fireballer Jeff McDonald for three runs in the top of the first.

McDaniel put himself in trouble by walking the leadoff batter, Jeff Puryear. Designated hitter Brian Corey then singled Puryear over to second. McDaniel really out himself in trouble when catcher Darren DePew tried to bunt the runners into scoring position. McDaniel fielded the perfect bunt, but threw wildly to first base, allowing one run to score.

After Rick Buer struck out, Dan Patterson promptly pushed McDaniel into the hole he'd dug for himself by doubling into the left-centerfield gap, driving home two more runs.

And that's when the hitting hex took over the Kahoks' bats. Todd Miller and Rod Woods each singled to start Collinsville's first inning. But after Parker flied out to center, Steve Blumner hit a line shot right at shortstop Mark Hessler, who promptly

Orphans prove they're good enough

GRANITE CITY — It's not often a team that was once eliminated in the regionals is still in contention for a sectional title. But by virtue of Centralia's regional win via Carbondale's forfeit (see related story) and a 6-3 sectional win over Belleville East Saturday afternoon, that's exactly what's happening.

The Centralia Orphans are scheduled to clash with the defending state champion Collinsville Kahoks at 4 p.m. Monday for the Granite City South Sectional game.

Centralia coach Don Walker took the first 15 minutes after the game doubled-up Woods at first base.

In the second inning starting pitcher Rick Takmajian walked the first two batters, but got out of trouble when McDaniel flied to left and Carl Luehman threw out Alan Cooper trying to go to third on the tag-up.

"I was worried," Keene said. "You're going to have to save some runs to get back in the game against North."

Takmajian helped the Kahoks earn their first three runs by walking both Robert Sanabria and Miller to lead off the third. After Woods struck out, Parker took a 2-0 count fastball over the left-centerfield fence.

"In this game you can't walk people. You just can't walk people," Keene said. "Especially the lead-off man. You've gotta make them hitters."

But it wasn't walks that hurt the Steelers in the fourth. Collinsville's Kent Vartanian hopped on another Takmajian fastball for a double to lead off the inning.

That's when Paul Barrington was called in to bail North out.

An error, however, put men on the corners and a explaining to reporters just why his team was even there. After the smoke was cleared, however, he was obviously pleased with the win over East. "These kids are not a 'rah-rah' bunch of kids. They plug at you. They plug at you little by little," Walker said.

The Orphans plugged away at East with nine hits. But 11 walks issued by Lancer pitchers and three errors were the difference in the game.

Centralia took the lead for good in the fourth inning. With the score tied 1-1, three walks loaded up the bases for the Orphans. With one out,

Title game rained out

GRANITE CITY — Today's Granite City South Class AA Sectional championship game between Centralia and Collinsville, originally set for 4 p.m., has been postponed until tomorrow because of heavy rains today in the area.

Tentative plans call for the game to be played at 3 p.m. Tuesday.

balk by Barrington allowed one run to score. Miller's RBI-single and Woods' RBI-double then put Collinsville in the driver's seat with a comfortable 6-3 lead.

North threatened in the sixth when DePew doubled and Buer singled him home. But the Kahoks came back in their sixth with two runs on a triple by McDaniel, a single and another North error.

McDaniel's triple got down despite Buer's valiant effort at a diving catch. Buer also made a diving attempt on Wood's double in the fourth inning.

East came back with two runs in the sixth, but the rally wasn't enough.

The Lancers finished with a 2-6 record. The Orphans are 2-4-7.

DAN PATTERSON, Granite City North second baseman, flies high to complete a throw to first base for a double play Saturday during his team's loss to Collinsville in the semifinals of the Granite City South Class AA Sectional. Collinsville was set to play Centralia today for the title, but the game has been postponed until tomorrow because of rain. Todd Miller slides in for Collinsville.

Guess who has struck again?

OK KID, SLIP THESE ON AFTER THE SEVENTH INNING...

pete hayes

Board of Directors in Springfield sending Centralia — a team Carbondale beat 3-0 in Thursday's regional championship game — to the Granite City South Sectional later that same day.

Carbondale was eliminated by technicality. Not a pitcher. Not a hitter. Not a homer. And when the Terriers were notified in their locker room (where they'd been waiting for word of the IHSA decision), it wasn't a pretty sight.

First though, let it be said that Carbondale DID violate an IHSA by-law prohibiting a player from pitching more than nine innings in one day of state tournament competition. But it's not as simple as all that. Far from it. You see, Carbondale had the deck stacked against it from the start.

Brian "Barney" Welch of Carbondale turned in one of the most outstanding performances ever Thursday in Carbondale's double win. Double-win? Oh yes, I forgot to tell you. Because of rain earlier in the week at Centralia, the regional semifinal between Marion and Carbondale was moved to Thursday afternoon.

The winner would immediately return to the diamond and play in the championship game against the winner of Wednesday's semifinal — Centralia.

The plot thickens. Welch pitched six innings in defeating Marion 8-4 in the semifinals. He returned to the mound to pitch a complete game shutout against Centralia in the championship game. That's 13 innings.

There's more. Tournament Director Bob Jones, who's also the Centralia High athletic director, was watching the games. He didn't say a word until Welch was already in his 10th inning of work.

Wrong move. Another case of not seeing the forest for the trees. The "grownpus" were looking so hard at their rulebook, they forgot to look at the boys who were out there playing the game.

Well and good. But if that's the case, why wasn't Welch ordered off the mound after his nine innings of work, instead of letting him go ahead and pitch the 13 innings and THEN forfeit the game the next day? After all, he STILL best Centralia. The Orphans had to realize they didn't deserve to be playing in Saturday's sectional semifinal.

A perfect example of the sins of the father being visited down upon the children. After all, the kids were just out there doing what they were told to do.

Carbondale forfeits title

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor

Carbondale — When Stewart Coleman answered the phone Saturday afternoon in the coaches' office at Carbondale High School, he knew it was bad news when he heard the voice on the other end. It was 1:15 p.m. and he and his teammates found out they weren't going to the Granite City South Sectional baseball tournament.

Carbondale athletic director Doug Woolard called a school secretary with the bad news from Springfield. Because of a violation Thursday by Carbondale in the championship game of the Centralia Class AA Regional, the Terriers would have to forfeit the game they won 3-0 for the title.

"When I picked up the phone, I was hoping we were going," said Coleman, a senior player for Carbondale. "But I could tell by the tone of her voice that we weren't. That's when I gave the phone to Coach (Ron) Darnell (CHS assistant). It just killed me."

The violation occurred this way: Brian Welch of Carbondale pitched six innings of one-hit baseball in Thursday's semifinal victory over Marion (8-4). He then turned around and pitched a complete-game 3-0 shutout over Centralia in the championship game. IHSA rules allow a pitcher to go in only nine innings a day. He had gone 13.

Carbondale felt that because the semifinal game was the same day as the championship game (because of a rain-out earlier in the week), the rule would not apply. They found out they were wrong.

Welch's statistics on the day were phenomenal for a high school junior: The right-hander hurled 13 innings, allowed six hits (one in the first game), struck out 15 (11 in the first game) and allowed 10 walks. He also played an inning in centerfield. All that will go into the record books, however, is the first-game performance.

On Friday, IHSA Executive Assistant Secretary Don Robinson ruled that Carbondale would have to forfeit its regional title because of the violation of the rule. Carbondale appealed the decision to a five-man IHSA committee. CHS was represented at the Springfield hearing by Woolard, baseball coach Larry Jackson, Principal Dale Smith and school

Corral 4-0 after doubleheader sweep

GRANITE CITY — The Corral Cowboys of Granite City ran their Inter-City Baseball League record to 4-0 here Sunday with a doubleheader sweep of Edwardsville at Wilson Park, 11-2 and 3-2.

The two games were as different as night and day. Corral needed a superb pitching performance from starter Doug Rains — and got it. He held Edwardsville to three hits, all in the third inning when Edwardsville scored both their runs.

"The difference in the first game and the second was pitching," said Corral manager Ken Crawford. "Their pitcher was pretty good, too."

And how. Edwardsville starter Ken Scheibel scattered seven hits and had a 2-1 lead going into the bottom of the sixth inning. But that's when Corral's comeback started.

After shortstop Mike Robertson grounded out leading off, Dan Hagenbrock stroked a triple to deep left-centerfield. Jeff Tretter, who switched to Corral this season from McDonald's team, then singled him home with the tying run. Tretter then stole second and scored the winning run when Dan Fechte singled.

"Rains had a little control problem, but when he was getting the ball over, they weren't hitting it," said Crawford. "The big thing in their third inning was a couple walks mixed in with two hits."

Parker puts Dad in awkward position

GRANITE CITY — Collinsville's Kent Parker put his father in a tough position here Saturday. The younger Parker slugged a three-run home run in the third inning of the Kahoks sectional game against Granite City North. The homer tied the game and lifted the Kahoks to an 8-4 victory.

Jack Parker, his father, was then stuck between a rock and a hard place. The elder Parker is the assistant baseball coach at North. "It's tough," the father said reluctantly. "You just go out and do your job. I had to hit it out to get it by them," Kent said. Just the day before he was taking a razzing because his .264 batting average is in no way indicative of the way he's been hitting the ball. Kent has been the main victim of a hex that has bothered the Kahoks as a whole. All of his best shots seem to always be caught. But not this one. He hammered it well over the left-centerfield fence about 330 feet out. "It was a 20 fastball right down the middle. I couldn't have asked for a better pitch if he'd have thrown it over the fence for me," he said. The younger Parker hasn't let the pressure of playing in last-season's tournament bother him. He calmly and emphatically stated, "We'll beat whoever it is Monday," referring to the scheduled sectional title game. "We might as well go all the way."

The scrappy first baseman had might as well go all the way on a personal achievement. He has yet to commit an error this season.

BUER STEALS IT. Collinsville second baseman Rod Woods waits for the throw as Granite City North's Rick Buer safely steals second during Saturday's Collinsville Victory over the stealers in the Granite City Class AA Sectional. Collinsville and Centralia will play for the championship tomorrow. The winner will advance to the State Finals in Springfield this weekend.

Races washed out

GRANITE CITY — Heavy rains throughout the Granite City area Saturday forced promoter Gil Rimmel to cancel racing at the Tri-City Speedway Saturday night. Racing action will resume at the speedway this Saturday night with the Midwest Racing Association, sprint cars, the limited late models and the street stocks.

Last week's winners Larry Gates of Evansville, Ind., in the sprint cars, Terry Gallaher of Hannibal, Mo., in the limited late models and Tom Stoebe of O'Fallon, Mo., in the street stocks will all be on hand this Saturday.

On Saturday night June 20, the National Outlaw Stock Car Association for winged late model stock cars will be at the speedway for a 10-lap feature.

Women's Tourney

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District will hold two Women's July Fourth Softball Tournaments, starting Tuesday, June 30 and ending Saturday, July 4. There will be a Women's Class AA tournament with six openings for teams and a Women's Class A tournament with 11 openings for teams.

The entry fee is $65 per team and must be paid at the time the teams are registered. Entries will be limited to teams currently in the Granite City Park District Softball leagues.

Teams will be allowed to pick up three players from other teams that are currently playing in the Park District's Softball leagues, providing their team is not participating in the tournament. This means all leagues.

Trophies will be awarded to the top three teams in the Class A tournament and top two teams in the Class AA tournament.

The deadline for entering the tournament will be Friday, June 12.

Drawings will be made Tuesday, June 16, at 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park Office. Teams may begin registering for the tournaments Tuesday, June 2. The tournaments will be double-elimination.

Forfeit

The vote by the IHSA committee was unanimous against Carbondale. When Woodard's call came through, some of the players wept. Most cursed. Some just wandered out the door in disbelief. Some of the others, like Coleman, just stayed where they were. Where else did they have to go? They thought they were going to have a baseball game to play that afternoon.

"I can understand the rule," said Welch. "I did pitch more than nine innings in a day. But the (semifinal) game hadn't been scheduled. They could have played the championship yesterday (Friday)."

Darnell was a little more upset. "They (Centralia) set the tournament up to their advantage," he said. "They played Mount Vernon (in a semifinal) on Wednesday at home, after they had called us and said it was too wet to play. Rather than put two teams at a disadvantage, they could have postponed the (Granite City) Sectional until Monday if we hadn't been able to get the game in yesterday (Friday)."

"They gave themselves an unfair advantage and they shouldn't be able to pick up a protest on an unfair advantage they made," he said.

The players began to filter back into the locker room. "I feel like I just got something ripped-off," said Coleman. "It's like somebody just stole my car."

Cahokia downs South girls in regional play

ALTON — It just wasn't in the cards. After splitting with Cahokia during the regular season, Granite City South softball coach Pat Yates had to feel good about playing the Comanches for the Alton Marquette Regional championship here Thursday. But the third time wasn't the charm.

Cahokia scored five runs in the first inning and coasted to a 9-2 victory over South and advanced to its own sectional — which was scheduled to begin Saturday. Red Bud beat Springfield Lanphier 7-6 in the first game Saturday, but the other contest between Cahokia and Belleville West was pushed back to Sunday because of rain.

Cahokia had 15 hits against South ace Karen Spencer. South managed only six hits off of Cahokia starter and winner Sonja Rhodes.

Sunday in the Cahokia Sectional, Cahokia handled Belleville West easily, 8-2. The Comanches will face Red Bud for the sectional championship. That game was scheduled for 4 p.m. today, but as of press time, it appeared it would most likely be moved to Tuesday because of rain.

Fast-Pitch meet

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District will hold a July Fourth Men's Fast Pitch Softball tournament on Sunday, July 5. All games will be played at Wilson Park Diamond eight. The games will begin at 8 a.m. and run straight through to the 9:30 p.m. championship game.

Entry fee is $60 per team and must be paid at the time the teams register. Entries will be limited to teams currently in the Granite City Park District fast pitch league.

Teams will be allowed to pick up three players from other teams that are currently participating in the park leagues, providing their team is not playing in the tournament.

Five teams will be accepted in the fast pitch tournament. Trophies will be awarded

Switchman's hut burns in Venice

Terminal Railroad police went to a switchman's hut, located near the large tower, south of the Venice viaduct, this week to investigate a report that someone was seen entering the shanty.

They found two men running from the metal building, which was on fire, and an officer took into custody Kendall Wade Hendricks, 21, and Calvin Walker, 18, both of St. Louis, at Klein Street and Merchant's.

Firefighters from the Venice department were called to extinguish the blaze and reported the building's wood interior was completely destroyed.

Walker and Hendricks alleged they were trying to light a stove inside the hut to keep warm when it caught on fire.

Both were charged with trespassing and released on notice to appear in the Granite City court on June 12.

Additional charges may be filed, police said.

Boy Scouts train for National Jamboree

At the National Jamboree Training Campout last week, 40 Boy Scouts participated in volleyball fire dousing, flag pole raising and tug of war competition.

One objective of the campout was to train the boys for the National Jamboree, which begins on July 28. Plans for the 15-day event were finalized at the camporee, and concerns of space needed for equipment and camping gear that the boys will be packing on the bus for their trip, were expressed.

Boy Scouts from the local Cahokia Mounds Council, headquartered in Granite City, registered to attend the National Jamboree are Scoutmaster Leroy Stark, Assistant Scoutmasters Pat Gillespie, Randy Lawrence and Jack Taylor; and Boy Scouts Alan Anderson, Andrew Anderson, Scott Baima, Alan Forbes, Brian Forbes, Ronnie France, George Geschwind, Michael Geske, Brian Gibbons, Mark Gillespie, Michel Griffin,

Q. I recently read an article talking about buying in your hometown rather than the nearest metropolis. Why? Sometimes, things are less in a larger town because of increased competition.

A. We all have a right to be proud of the development of our local business community. All the necessities and most luxuries we could ever need or want are available right here. Hometown service has always been the best. Being able to have faith in the people you do business with has steadfastly been the best warranty anyone could have. It makes more sense (or cents) than ever, to buy at home. It's one simple solution to saving money and conserving energy.

HOMEMAKERS. Helen Miller, Granite City and Jean Wehling, Alhambra, members of the County Homemakers Extension Association, are shown discussing arrangements for the group's annual New Member Tea held in Edwardsville. ## JOSEPH MICHELS DEPARTED JUNE 2, 1979

We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own. Like love on the withered old, when all other things decay. Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away.

Frank Sinatra loves $$$

By JACK MARTIN

HOLLYWOOD — FRANK SINATRA has signed a flabbergasting $$$ deal with NBC which will include several musical (what else?) specials titled "F.S. Loves New York," "F.S. Loves Chicago," "F.S. Loves Vegas," and probably "F.S. Loves L.A."

Sinatra will also pocket a whopping $1.65 mil for a series of singalongs in Argentina this August, his first performance ever in that land. And he'll pick up a few more pesos if he does any commercials during the tour, which will also include some lucrative warbling in Rio de Janeiro.

... A very weary but happy JANE WYMAN back in Hollywood from a two-day tumb in Manhattan for her just-sold Lorimar series "The Vintage Years," which was created especially for the star by EARL "The Waltons" HAMNER.

Jane was introduced to the CBS execs and sponsors as "The network's distaff J.R. Ewing." And "The magnificent evil." Meaning she plays a matriarchal meanie on the series which will debut this fall on Friday nights following "Dallas."

NBC quietly looking to link up WILLIAM HOLDEN and LINDSAY "Bionic Woman" WAGNER in a weekly series.

... And that popular TV and newspaper personality SHIRLEY EDER in Tinseltown testing for a regular gossip spot on ABC's "Good Morning, America."

... Yet another celebrated celeb holdout has finally given in and signed up for a bit of gilt-edged huckstering. Yep, ANGELA LANSBURY (currently touring the country in her Broadway smash "Sweeney Todd") has signed a multi-year pact with Pocket Books to promote a series of romantic novels about an aristocratic (and oftentimes naughty) British family called "The Steeles."

... Also on the Book Beat: CHRIS EVERT-LLOYD is ghost-huddling on an autobiography for New American Library in which the tennis great promises to tell all about her off-court court-ing with Casanovas like JIMMY CONNORS and BURT REYNOLDS.

... And that big band belter of yesteryear, HELEN FOREST, is gonna let it all hang out in her upcoming memoirs. Particularly about how she lost her long-time lover HARRY JAMES to BETTY GRABLE. A tale, we're told, that will curl your toes. And then some.

Romantic Note: GOLDIE HAWN has fallen in love, yet again. This time the object of her affection is handsome French actor YVES REINIER. The couple met just the other month in Paris and have been closer than this ever since.

Meanwhile Goldie's next movie move is probably gonna be opposite LIZA MINNELLI in the musical "Chicago," which starred GWEN VERDON and CHITA RIVERA on Broadway several seasons back (produced by MARTIN RICHARDS and MARY LEA JOHNSON who will do ditto in the film version).

... The hottest spot in Hollywood continues to be the restaurant-niteclub "La Cage Aux Folles," which takes its "theme" from the pair of successful flicks of the same title.

Doctor's ForumGuidance for a person with high cholesterol

Q. Please give me some guidance in developing a diet for an individual with high cholesterol. Also, is there anywhere where I can obtain further information about high cholesterol and diets to lessen the condition? — A.D., Santa Rosa, Calif.

A. Cholesterol and the other blood fats (triglycerides, phospholipids) do not circulate as individual entities in the plasma, the liquid part of the blood. Rather, they circulate in submicroscopic spherical particles called LIPOPROTEINS.

When the normal individual fasts overnight, or 12-14 hours, there are three lipoprotein classes found in the plasma. These include: very low density lipoprotein (VLDL) — the major triglyceride-carrying particle, low density lipoprotein (LDL) — the major cholesterol-carrying lipoprotein which is highly associated with the development of heart attack and coronary heart disease (CHD), and high density lipoprotein (HDL) — which, when elevated, protects against the development of atherosclerosis and CHD.

When a blood "cholesterol" test is performed, the value obtained represents the sum of the cholesterol contained in VLDL, LDL and HDL in that plasma sample. Therefore, if the serum or plasma total cholesterol is elevated, it is necessary to determine if it is due to an elevated LDL-cholesterol, so that a specialized or diet drug therapy can be instituted, or an elevated HDL-cholesterol, which would not require treatment, or an elevated LDL-cholesterol, which would require weight loss plus an appropriate diet, or when needed, drug therapy.

Your physician should be able to find a laboratory in your area that can perform these determinations for you.

I would suggest that you contact the American Heart Association affiliate in your area to obtain additional information about blood "cholesterol."

They generally recommend a six-point program to lower the risk of coronary heart disease, which should be instituted and supervised by your physician:

1. Caloric restriction for a desirable body weight-for-height, if the subject is overweight.

2. Adherence to a diet designed to lower plasma LDL-cholesterol levels, if elevated, which advocate the reduced dietary intake of all of the following:

— Fat-containing dairy products. Efforts should be directed toward a decreased consumption of the hard or animal fats with substitution by the polyunsaturated vegetable oils, e.g., skim or non-fat milk rather than whole milk, corn oil or safflower oil, margarine rather than butter, etc.

— Meat, especially marbled heavy beef. Greater emphasis should be placed upon seafood (except shrimp) and poultry. Meat, when consumed, should be a lean cut without visible marbling, trimmed of all visible fat, and should be broiled.

— Commercial baked goods.

— Sauces and creamed foods.

— Yolks of eggs.

3. Cessation of cigarette smoking.

4. A program of moderate exercise adhered to consistently.

5. Treatment of high blood pressure, if present, by a physician.

6. Treatment of other conditions, if present, e.g., diabetes mellitus, etc.

Will 'Penny Annie' make it as a movie?

By NANCY ANDERSON

HOLLYWOOD — Target of assorted motion picture offers, Larry Gatlin hopes to make his movie debut in a production based on one of his songs, "Penny Annie."

The song, like many a country-Western ballad, has a story which the Gatlin Brothers have turned over to a screenwriter in hopes that he can transform it into a screenplay suitable for filming.

If the hoped-for movie becomes a reality, it will include parts for the Gatlins, though none would play the title role.

Meanwhile, Larry has been occupied with his special for ABC-TV (air date May 25) which he proudly claims is special in more than name.

LARRY GATLIN
...A special in more than name which is part of his ABC special.

In another segment, Gatlin, his son, Joshua, Johnny Cash who is Joshua's godfather, and Johnny's son, John Carter Cash, get together on an animal preserve owned by the Cash family.

The show also includes segments with Dottie West "who brought me to Nashville — she actually sent me a plane ticket," Larry says, and with Roger Miller, "who taught me more than anybody else about songwriting."

Much of the show is set in the old Fox Theater in Atlanta, a glorious building which was barely saved from wreckers by art deco enthusiasts.

But an oil drilling rig near Los Angeles provides locale for some of the Gatlin Brothers' songs, plus insight into their attitudes.

"We were raised by an oil field driller, our father," Larry explains, "so we wanted to show we know about work and that we appreciate the working people who spend the money to buy our albums. We know where their hard-earned money came from."

"The theme of this show is we're human."

When Larry was in the sixth grade, his teacher predicted he'd be a millionaire by the time he was 25.

"She was wrong," he says. "Success has brought me money, but that's not the best thing about success."

"The best thing is getting to sing more songs for more people."

According to biblical injunction, Larry tithes, "because that's how I was raised. But when I tithe I'm not giving to the Lord. I'm just paying 10 percent interest on the money he's loaned me."

With the special behind him, Gatlin is working on songs for his next album which should be out in late summer or early fall.

And he's standing by to give advice and consent to the writer or writers who'll convert his "Penny Annie" into, hopefully, his first motion picture.
